Woman Accused of Killing Husband Collapses at Wheeling Trial

COURT HALTED BEFORE TIME

Became Violently Ill After She Was Carried to Jail—Number of Witnesses on Stand—More About Poisons.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk collapsed today under the ordeal of the trial in which she is charged with administering poison to her wealthy husband, John O. Schenk. An hour before the usual hour for adjournment she had to be led to her room in the jail, unable to withstand the strain. Court took a recess and the trial was temporarily suspended.

Throughout the trial, and since Mrs. Schenk's arrest on November 9th she has displayed a calm that has repeatedly been remarked. When apparently damaging testimony was being offered against her, it failed to disturb her beyond a slight exhibition of nervousness.

Nothing of the previous startling nature was brought out in court today, only physicians being examined. Mrs. Schenk had not been looking as well all day, as on previous days of the court session, and suddenly toward the closing hour, she leaned over to Frank O'Brien, one of her attorneys, and asked him to get her a glass of water. She gulped it down and it was but a few moments before she said to another attorney "For God's sake, get a few minutes recess."

The request was granted and Mrs. Schenk was taken to the county jail, where she became violently sick at the stomach and showed symptoms of fainting.

A county physician was called and it was 15 minutes before she was able to return to the court room, and was weak and nervous during the short interval between her return and the adjournment of court. On two occasions during the afternoon she wept and her handkerchief was kept almost constantly to her eyes.

J. J. P. O'Brien, chief counsel for Mrs. Schenk, said:

"The attack today was nothing serious. The court room was simply stuffy, the woman was annoyed by the constant stare, day after day by hundreds of the curious and she became ill through the strain. She is not worried at the outcome of the trial, and will be all right tomorrow."

Hundreds of curious women were sorely disappointed at the announcement of Judge Jordan today that he deemed it best for the moral interests of the community that women should be excluded from the trial, and that hereafter none should be admitted to the court room. The orders were carried out this afternoon and aside from Mrs. Schenk there was at no time a woman in the court room.

Attorney O'Brien announced tonight just before adjournment that every physician in the Wheeling district will be summoned by the defense. Dr. J. W. Myers declared on the stand Tuesday that he had sold lead poison to Mrs. Schenk, and that she had told him on the night she is alleged to have attempted to bribe the detective nurse that she had secured two ounces of Fowler's solution of arsenic from another source. It is the purpose of the defense in summoning over 100 doctors to show that none of them sold poison to Mrs. Schenk.

The defense apparently scored for the first time since Dr. Hupp was on the stand early last week. Through persistent questioning of many physicians summoned by the State it was brought out that Schenk had been attended by many physicians and that many drugs had been prescribed. The drugs included bichloride of mercury, arsenic and several others, and while given in small doses it was shown that some patients are more susceptible to their action than others, and that lead poisoning may result from absorption as well as taking directly into the stomach.

Though the defense secured admissions that other poisons had been given in small quantities as medicine, the State established one important point. Every physician who had been connected with the case and was called to the stand, stated in answer to hypothetical question, containing the symptoms exhibited by Schenk thus far, that Schenk's condition showed plainly that two poisons were in his system, lead and arsenic.

LORIMER CASE UP IN SENATE

Speeches in Defense and Against Illinois Senator—Consideration of Alleged Bribery in Election. The Details.

Washington, Jan. 18.—After almost a week of cessation the Senate today resumed consideration of the case of Senator Lorimer. There were two speeches, one by Senator Burrows, chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, in support of the Illinois senator, and the other by Senator Borah, of Idaho, in opposition.

Mr. Burrows strongly commended the course of Mr. Lorimer in demanding an investigation. Mr. Borah declared that corruption had characterized the proceedings ever since Lorimer had decided to become a candidate for the Senate.

"There is absolutely no proof in the case direct or indirect, from which a legitimate inference could be drawn that a single member of the General Assembly was corruptly influenced to vote for Mr. Lorimer."

This was the conclusion of Senator Burrows, of Michigan, in a speech in the Senate today defending the majority report of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, of which he is chairman, confirming the right of Senator Lorimer to his seat in the Senate.

"There was no evidence submitted to the committee or obtainable so far as known," declared Mr. Burrows, "inculpating Senator Lorimer in the bribery or attempted bribery, if such there was, of any member of the Legislature, nor was there any evidence that Senator Lorimer had any knowledge whatever that such bribery or attempted bribery was perpetrated by any one."

Discussing Mr. White's operations Mr. Borah asked:

"What was it that prompted him to vote for Lorimer? Was it friendship? Was it honor? or was it corruption? Ask yourself the question and see what the answer will be."

"I suggest," said Mr. Heyburn "that it is possible that White voted for Lorimer with a view of holding up Mr. Lorimer."

"It is possible," responded the other Idaho Senator, "but it is so improbable that I had not thought of it."

This colloquy aroused a burst of laughter in the galleries which was displeasing to Mr. Heyburn and he protested.

"I do not intend," he said, "that the galleries shall determine the merits of this debate by their snickers and giggles."

"I cannot control the snickers and giggles," responded Mr. Borah.

"We can, the Senate can," retorted Mr. Heyburn. "And I give notice that these signs of approval or disapproval will not be tolerated."

Mr. Borah analyzed the testimony of the various witnesses before the investigating committee. He declared that there had been unmistakable bribery. He declared that it had been shown conclusively that at least four of the Lorimer votes had been obtained by bribery.

Discussing the part played by Lee O'Neil Browne, the minority leader in the Illinois Senate, Mr. Borah declared that without his 30 Democratic cohorts Lorimer's election would have been impossible.

"The election could not have been pulled off without fixing Mr. Browne" he said in homely phrase.

In conclusion Mr. Borah denounced the methods attending Mr. Lorimer's coup in unmeasured terms, saying:

"From the hour that the Senator from Illinois decided to become a candidate the stream of corruption began to flow and it never has ceased. It has gone into the courts; it has affected juries; it has broken down lawyers; it has left broken reputations in its wake. From the beginning there has been evidence of combination and a well prepared scheme. This was not the result of accident, but evidence of the organizing ability of a powerful mind."

MOON BILL IS AMENDED.

Affects Corporation and Stock Company as to Suits.

Washington, January 18.—The House of Representatives today adopted an amendment to the Moon bill, codifying laws relating to the judiciary, which will have the effect of stopping the practice of corporations doing an interState business from taking practically all suits against them out of the hands of State courts and placing them in the Federal courts.

The amendment was offered by Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, and after a preliminary skirmish in which party lines were tightly drawn, was finally adopted by practically a unanimous vote. The amendment in full is as follows:

"Provided, further, That no suit against a corporation or joint stock company, brought in a State court of the State in which the plaintiff resides, or in which the cause of action arise, or in which the defendant has its place of business, or carries on its business, shall be removed to any United States court on the ground of diverse citizenship."

Mr. Garrett, in explaining the amendment, said it would prevent a New Jersey corporation, for instance, from transferring State court suits against it to the United States court, on the ground that the officers and directors of the corporation live in New York.

The amendment is regarded as an important one and called out a general debate.

THRILLING FLIGHT TO WARSHIP DECK

Aviator Ely Accomplished New Feat Near 'Frisco Yesterday

MANY MARVEL AT HIS DARING

Flew Back to Aviation Feld, After Making Trip to Battleship—A Sham Battle Among the Airmen.

San Francisco, January 18.—Eugene B. Ely today flew 13 miles in an aeroplane, made a successful landing on the cruiser Pennsylvania, and an hour later rose from the cruiser and flew back to Selfridge field, twelve miles south of San Francisco.

The feat was accomplished without mishap. Not a wire or bolt of the biplane was injured.

"It was easy enough," said Ely, as he stepped from his seat after his return and was seized by the cheering soldiers of the Thirteenth infantry, and hoisted on their shoulders.

It was 10:45 o'clock when he left the aviation grounds. His motor worked perfectly and after a few circles he headed northeast, swept over the San Brune hills and disappeared towards San Francisco.

In the meantime the wireless advised the cruiser, at anchor with the fleet in the bay, that he would make the attempt, and final preparations were made for his reception. A wooden platform 100 feet long and 50 feet wide had been constructed over the after deck of the ship. It sloped gently aft, and across the floor were stretched ropes, with 100-pound sand bags made fast at either end. These were designed to be caught by hooks on the lower framework of the bi-plane.

As a further precaution, a canvass barrier was stretched across the forward end of the platform. Launches and ship's boats fully manned were put out in event of a mishap. Ely had installed two seven-foot pontoons under his aeroplane, to float the machine, in case he were forced to descend on the water, and forward he had a hydroplane, to keep the aeroplane from diving in the water.

At 10:55 o'clock the lookout on the cruiser Pennsylvania spied Ely through the haze and Ely received a blast of welcome. He came on at a terriffic speed and circled around the fleet, dipping in salute to each ship, and came up in the wind for the stern of the Pennsylvania. He was flying low as he neared the ship, and dropped down lightly, striking the platform about 40 feet from the inner end. The hooks on the aeroplane caught the ropes and stopped the bi-plane within sixty feet.

When Ely touched the deck he was soaring about 35 miles an hour, but so gradually was the speed checked by the dragging of the weigated ropes, as they were caught in succession that he came to a standstill without disarranging any part of the machine.

Exactly one hour from the time he landed on the cruiser, Ely took his seat in the machine and gave the word to let go. The aeroplane swept down the 130-foot platform at high speed, dropped off the stern with a gentle dip and then rose rapidly over the ships in the harbor.

Rising to a height of 2,000 feet, Ely circled over San Francisco and then headed for the aviation field. He landed there at 12:13 o'clock.

The cruiser's wireless advised the field officers of Ely's departure and they were ready for him. A full company of the Thirtieth infantry swooped down on him as he dismounted and bore him in triumpa to Major O'Gill's tent. The other troops were lined up to cheer the aviator. An informal reception in the Major's tent followed.

Among the guests on board the cruiser were Rear Admirals Milton and Reese, both retired, and each of them said that Ely's feat demondstrated beyond doubt the utility of the aeroplane in naval affairs.

This was National Defenders' day at the aviation meet and the military had a prominent part in the program.

General Tasker H. Pliss, commander of the Department of California, attended with his staff, in full dress uniform. Several foreign consuls general, stationed in San Francisco, also were present.

An interesting military problem, involving the use of the aeroplane for scout service, was worked out.

A sham battle was fought. A force, supposed to be advancing on a city, drove back the defense's outposts and obtained possession of Selfridge field. In front of the grand stand a wireless tower was erected. Aviator Charles F. Willard, in a bi-plane equipped with a wireless instrument, ascended to ascertain the position of the entrances of the "enemy" and the "city" fortifications.

The experiment was to determine whether a wireless message could be received and read by the aviator. According to Willard, he had no difficulty in making out the simple cipher message, which was to turn to the left and descend. This he did.

SENATOR LODGE AGAIN VICTOR

Won Hardest Fight in His Political Career in Massachusetts—Attacks of Governor Foss of No Avail.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 18.—Henry Cabot Lodge won today the hardest fight in his political career in nearly 30 years, and returns to the United States Senate for a fourth term, with the support of 146 out of 279 members of the Massachusetts Legislature, or six more than the number necessary for a choice in the joint Legislature.

The Democratic senators, Martin H. Curley and Michael J. Murray, left their party to vote for him, but their support was not necessary. Representative James H. McInerney, another Democrat, was in the chamber, but did not vote. He did not care to oppose Senator Lodge, because of personal friendship. Senator Lodge was elected on the part of the Senate yesterday but the House failed to make a selection, so today both branches met, and the result of the first and only ballot was as follows: Whole number of votes 279; necessary for a choice 140. Henry Cabot Lodge, of Nahant, (Republican) 146; Sherman L. Whipple, of Brookline, (Democrat). 121; Butler Ames, of Lowell, (Republican) 7; A. Lawrence Lowell, of Cambridge, (Independent Republican) 2; Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, (Republican) 1; John R. Thayer, of Worcester, (Democrat) 1; Sylvester A. McBride, of Watertown, (Socialist) 1.

For nearly two years the senior senator of Massachusetts has been assailed by Republican insurgents, and the Democratic party.

He won out today despite the attacks made upon him by Governor Eugene N. Foss, a former Republican Congressman; Butler Ames, of Lowell, himself a candidate for senator, and other insurgent Republicans, together with the exertions of the Democratic leaders, the senator was given a majority of six.

Governor Foss refused to comment on the result, while Congressman Ames said that he was convinced that the desires of a large majority of the people of Massachusetts "have been submerged by the influence of financial interests."

Mr. Ames also declared his intention of continuing the fight.

Political historians say that the contest just ended was the most important senatorial battle in this State since the election of Charles Sumner, as a Free Soiler, in 1851.

HORNET BEING WATCHED.

May Have Violated Neutrality Laws of United States.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Until the Attorney General completes the investigation which he is conducting in the question as to whether or not the Hornet, the "navy" of General Bonilla's revolutionary forces in Honduras, violated the neutrality of the United States, the vessel will not be permitted by this government to commit any definite hostile act such as the bombardment of a port. This was learned at the State Department today. Every movement of the Hornet is being watched by the United States gunboats Marietta and Tacoma, now in Honduran waters. The Tacoma arrived at Trujillo yesterday when the Marietta left that port for Puerto Cortez. If the Department of Justice upon the conclusion of the inquiry which is now being made decides that the United States has a prima facie case against the Hornet indicating that she used the American flag and the port of New Orleans in a violation of neutrality it is probable that she will be seized by one of the American gunboats and brought to a port of the United States for trial. The Attorney General is studying the case in the standpoint of international law, and precedent.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 18.—At the quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Knights of Columbus here today the band which has been on the southern members preventing their carrying insurance in the order was removed. The report of the National Secretary shows the assets of the order to be $3,200,000 and the number of councils 1,478.

JEWISH COUNCIL MEETS IN GOTHAM

Union of American Hebrew Congregations Hears Important Addresses

ROOSEVELT AND MAYOR GAYNOR

Both Spoke at Banquet Last Night—Hear Oscar Strauss on American Judaism—Meets in Cincinnati Next.

New York, Jan. 18.—The delegates to the 22nd council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations in session here voted unanimously today to hold the next conference at Cincinnati in 1913.

At the banquet tonight the delegates and their guests listened to addresses by Theodore Roosevelt, Mayor Gaynor, Oscar Straus, Dr. David Philipson, of Cincinnati and Jacob H. Schiff, who also acted as toastmaster.

Colonel Roosevelt as the guest of honor was praised by the toastmaster as "one who more than any other American, living or dead, has taught the world the lesson that equally with any other citizen of this country, the Jew is entitled to the square deal. More than that he not only preached theories he turned them into actualities and called one of our co-religionists into the cabinet of the President of the United States, the highest office within his gift. We Jews owe him a debt of gratitude which I hope never will be forgotten."

Governor Dix sent a telegram wishing the delegates Godspeed "in the transcendent work you are doing for the good of mankind."

Mayor Gaynor said that "Israel has always been a growing and advancing religous force. The history of the Jewish race, he continued, "discloses no period in which mere non essential regulations and forms were not being gradually changed or abandoned in order to keep pace with the teaching of experience or to conform to the justice local or National manners and usages."

Hon. Oscar S. Straus, in addressing the delegates on "America and the Spirit of American Judaism," said:

"The spirit of American Judaism first asserted itself when Stuyvesant the Governor of New Amsterdam, would not permit the few Jews who had emigrated from Portugal, to unite with other burghers in standing guard for the protection of their homes. When the tax collector came to Asser Levy to collect a tax on this account he asked if that tax was imposed on all the residents of New Amsterdam. "No," was the reply, "it is only imposed upon the Jews because they do not stand guard." "I have not asked to be exempted," replied Asser Levy. "I am not only willing but I demand the right to stand guard." That right the Jews have asserted and exercised as officers and in the ranks of the Continental army and in every crisis of our National history from that time until the present day. The American spirit and the spirit of American Judaism were both nurtured in the same cradle of liberty, and united together in origin, in ideals, and in historical development. The closing chapter of the chronicles of the Jews on the Iberian peninsula forms the opening chapter of their history on this continent. It was Luis Santangel, "the Beaconfield of his time," assisted by his kinsman Gabriel Sanches, the Royal Treasurer of Aragon, who advanced out of his own purse seventeen thousand florns, which made the voyages of Columbus possible. Luis de Torres, the interpreter as well as the surgeon and physician of the little fleet, besides several of the sailors who were with Columbus on his first voyage, were Jews.

Looking back through this vista of more than four centuries as Americans and as Jews, we have reason to remember with justified gratitude the foresight and signal services of those Spanish Jews who had the wisdom to divine the far-reaching possibilities of the plans of the great navigator, whom King and Queen, Dukes and Grandees, regarded as "a visionary babbier" and "a scheming adventurer." The royal patrons were finally won over by the hope that Columbus might discover new treasures of gold and precious stones to enrich the Spanish crown. But not so with his Jewish patrons, who caused Columbus, or, as he was then called, Christopher Colon, to be recalled, and who advanced the money to fit out his caravals without security and without interest, as they saw, as by a divine inspiration, the promise and possibility of the discovery of another world, which, in the words of the late Emilio Castelar, the historian, statesman, and at one time president of Spain, "would afford to the quickening principles of human liberty a temple reared to the God of enfranchised and redeemed conscience, a land that would offer an unstained abode to the ideals of progress."

"The records of these transactions are fortunately still preserved in the archives of Simancas, in Seville.

"It is idle to speculate upon hypothetical theories in the face of the facts of history. Of course, America would have been discovered and col-

INSURANCE HEARING BEGUN

Proposition to Establish Legislative Commission in This State—Col. Walker Taylor Appears Before Committee.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18.—The House Committee on Propositions and Grievances heard argument this evening on the proposition to create a legislative commission to investigate the conduct of fire insurance companies as proposed in the bill by Mr. Koonce, of Onslow, chairman of the committee. The hearing will be resumed Wednesday of next week.

Col. Walker Taylor, of Wilmington, was the principal speaker today, clearly stirring a decided sentiment against the necessity of any investigation. He insisted that he is not opposing an investgation, but merely reciting conditions and leaving it to the Legislature as to the existence of the necessity. He raised the point, however, that an investigation would raise the presumption in the public mind that there is something wrong as to insurance in this State, which is not the fact, as he views the situation. He explained the work of the Southeastern Tariff Association as scheduling and equalizing rates for the convenience and economy of all companies and patrons rather than being in anywise a trust, and said that the fact that companies it represents are doing less than 50 per cent. of the business in this State, still further removes it from any color of a trust.

He quoted insurance rates to show that North Carolina now had the lowest average rates of any Southern States—$12 on the thousand; the others running much higher, with Florida in the lead with a rate of $21.40. Some of the Northern and Eastern States have lower rates because of different construction of houses, due to climatic necessities as well as through insurance precaution and to a far greater volume of business done.

He showed that of $21,000,000 paid to the insurance companies in North Carolina during the past ten years companies taking the risks only received $1,550,000, or an average of only $1,297, the remainder remaining in the State in pay in to agents, taxes, fire losses and other effort beneficial to the State.

If this shows any necessity of an investigation, declared Col. Taylor, let us have it by all means. Col. Taylor answered many questions by Chairman Koonce, scoring against the necessity of investigation in every one. He answered the positions taken by Governor Kitchin in his message to the Legislature, insisting that the positions of the executive have been taken through misinformation.

Mr. Sharege, a prominent merchant of Goldsboro, appeared to complain that he could get insurance 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper from unlicensed companies out of the State than from those having agents in the State and insisting that this was the reason for need of investigation. He was pressed into giving the names of brokers and companies offering cheaper insurance and it developed that practically all were "insurance sharks," without ability or inclination to meet losses.

DUKES UNFOLD BIG PLAN.

Propose Network of Interurban Trolley Lines Over Two States.

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 18.—That the Duke interests contemplate a network of interurban tralley lines connecting Charlotte and the cities of Piedmont, South Carolina, and utilizing the vast waterpower developed by the properties of the Southern Power Company, in which they are heavily interested, was made known today when Messrs. J. B. and B. N. Duke and W. S. Lee, unfolded their plans to business men of Greenville, Anderson, Spartanburg, S. C. Work will begin shortly on a line which will connect these three cities, thence tapping the Seaboard Air Line at Greenwood and thence on to Charlotte, opening up a rich territory.

The cities interested are asked to take stock in the proposed line and the manufacturers and merchants are to agree to give the trolley line at least 50 per cent. of their freight business. To both these propositions the towns thus far approacher have agreed. The road is to be built by a syndicate capitalized at $7,000,000.

BISHOP PARET PASSES AWAY.

Dies of Pneumonia in Maryland—A Pathetic Case.

Baltimore, Jan. 18.—Bishop William Paret, of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Maryland, died of pneumonia at 6 o'clock this morning at his residence here. He was stricken with the disease on the 26th anniversary of his appointment as head of the Maryland diocese, January 8th last. His successor is Right Rev. John Gardner Murray, who was elected coadjutor bishop with the right of succession September 29th, last year.

A pathetic feature of Bishop Paret's illness is the fact that he died without knowing that his wife had been buried only yesterday and she passed away without knowing of her husband's serious illness.

Funeral services for the late Bishop Paret will be held at Emanuel church here Saturday morning, following which, in accordance with his last wish, the body will be taken to Washington, D. C., where it will be interred in Rock Creek cemetery.

Bishop Paret was born in New York City, September 23, 1826.

Mr. Coxe, of Anson, explained that he had offered the bill at the request of E. C. Covington, who is in full possession of his faculties and read a letter from his attorney vouching for the bill. The motion to reconsider carried and a motion to place it back on the calendar resulted in its being re-referred.

The bill increasing the salaries of the judges of the Superior Court was made special order for Tuesday next.

UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES.

Annual Report of President Venable—Needs of Institution.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., January 17. — The trustees of the University of North Carolina, in annual session today, received the report of President Venable and that of the committee on memorializing the General Assembly, the principal feature of public interest in which was the recommendation that the University is in special need of increased income and additional buildings, the additional income needed being estimated at $25,000, and the additional buildings to put the institution on proper footing, at $500,000. The trustees adopted this report and will press upon the Assembly the necessity of coming to the aid of the institution to this extent. The trusts adopted a resolution to the effect that degrees be conferred upon those students of the University who left the institution during 1861-65 for the the Civil war. Resolutions paying tribute to Dr. Alexander, of the University faculty, and Col. Paul B. Means, member of the board of trustees, who have died during the year, were adopted. The trustees received report that Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, has accepted the invitation to deliver the commencement address this Spring, and Bishop Collin Denny, of Nashville, to deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

President Venable's report showed an enrollment for the past year of 821, this, with teaching equipment, he says, adequate for only 350 men. He emphasized the necessity for additional income and equipment, and details some of the most pressing needs.

Besides the Paulding, the flotilla consists of the destroyers Roe, Drayton and Terry. Lieutenant Sterling is authorized to take the destroyers to Havana in connection with the patrol.

The flight will be attempted on January 26th. The distance from Key West to Havanna is between eighty and ninety miles as the crow flies.

NATURE'S WARNING

Wilmington People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously,
But nature always warns you.
Notice the kidney secretions.
See if the color is unhealthy—
If there are settlings and sediment,
Passages frequent, scanty, painful.
It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in Wilmington.

William L. Benson, 615 S. Second St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store, did me more good than any other remedy I ever used. My back ached all the time and I could not stoop or lift without having sharp pains through my body. Mornings my back was so lame and sore that it was hard for me to get out of bed. The kidney secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the pains in my Back and regulated the passages of the kidney secretions. I have such great confidence in this remedy that I advise its use to anyone suffering from kidney complaint."

MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION.

Commission Plan of Government Discussed Very Generally at Session.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18.—The Municipal Association of North Carolina composed of the mayors and officials of many cities and towns of the State at tonight's session discussed the commission form of government. Mayor Pittman, of Henderson, favored asking the Legislature to authorize the cities to make whatever changes they see fit in their charters, submitting such changes to the Attorney General and if found to be not in conflict with the constitution of State and nation, to be voted on by qualified voters. Considerable opposittion developed to the Battle bill providing a general State law empowering cities to establish a commission form of government. A committee with Captain J. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville, as chairman, is named to draft a substitute and this will be done very likely within a week.

During the course of his speech Mr. Redmond predicted that the veto power of the House of Lords would be abolished before the Coronation without the creation of new peers.

STATE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

Programme for Year's Work Mapped Out—Some Legislation Contemplated—Charter Issues and Amendments—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18.—The North Carolina Board of Geological Survey in annual session here today adopted a programme for work during the coming year as mapped out by State Geologist Joseph Hyde Pratt. It includes vigorous prosecution of the investigation of the peat deposits in Eastern Carolina and the possibilities for its profitable utilization.

Among these are the investigation of the copper deposits west of the Blue Ridge; the study of the drainage possibilities in the State, especially the ascertainment of what swamp sections can be profitably drained; the continuation of the good roads policy used the past two years of giving engineering assistance to counties and the construction and maintenance of roads; the continuation of the forestry policy of inventorying the timber and estimating the location and amount of timber, this having been done already in forty of the western counties; assist cities and towns in surveys and protection of water sheds.

The report shows that an amazing amount of good for the furtherance of road improvement was accomplished the past two years with the $5,000 appropriation for engineering assistance. The Legislature will be urged this session to appropriate $40,000 for this and other co-operative work with the counties and for a bill to create a full fledged State Highway Commission to press co-operative work with counties in all parts of the State.

Charters are issued for the Madison Lumber Co., of Marshall, capital $10,000, by Guy V. Roberts and others; The W. M. Reagan Co., of Bryson City, capital $10,000. Amendments to the charter of the Hunter-Brewer Co., Raleigh, changing the name to Hunter-Rand Co., and to The Buckhorn Lithia Co., Granville county, increasing the capital to $200,000 were filed.

Col. F. A. Olds, the well known newspaper correspondent and secretary of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, has gone on a trip of several months through the Southern States and will also visit Mexico. While away he will spend some time with his son in Texas.

Representative Nunn, of Craven, has introduced in the House a bill having the endorsement of the State insurance commissioner and the Attorney General providing for the liquidation of insurance companies in the State when they have failed to come up to the requirements of the law or commit acts tantamount to serious impairment of their capital.

A bill of great importance is offered in the House by Mr. Majette, of Tyrell, providing that in addition to pensions already paid by the State to Confederate veterans and their widows the counties should pay them not less than $4 per month, and that both the State and county pensions should be paid monthly. Only those in the Soldiers' Home are to be excluded from this monthly payment.

The Carolina Municipal Association met here today for its third annual session to deliberate on matters connected with the municipal life of the State. The most important discussion of the meeting will be on the proposed commission form of government for North Carolina cities.

The convention was called to order this morning by the president, Mayor F. N. Tate, of High Point. The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor J. S. Wynne, Mayor Tate responding. During the meeting, which will last until Thursday morning, there will be discussions on many matters of interest to municipalities.

Dr. W. A. McPhaul, representative from Robeson, is back from a stay of several days at his home, enthusiastic over the encouragement he is receiving over his anti-cigarette bill, which he has introduced in the General Assembly.

DURHAM DOINGS.

Series of Y. M. C. A. Lectures—Broke Quarantine—The New Train.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., Jan. 18.—The local Y. M. C. A. has been arranging a series of lectures to be given by prominent men in various sections, and the names of some of these have been given out. Dr. Edwin Mims, of the department of English at the University, has been secured and several others, among whom are, Dr. R. T. Vann, president of Meredith College, Raleigh; Dr. W. W. Moore, of Richmond; Dr. W. L. Poteat, president of Wake Forest College; and Dr. W. R. L. Smith, of Chapel Hill.

In the Recorder's court three negroes were sentenced to 12 days in jail for breaking quarantine regulations which have been in force for some time on account of smallpox. All three of the negroes were found in a house with a smallpox patient, and were told by the health officer to stay there until they could be examined and vaccinated. The next morning, however, they were found away from the house, and were arrested. When arraigned they gave as their excuse that they had no food. The health officer, however, said that they did not get in the starving condition until they were arrested. The excuse was not accepted and they were sentenced.

Two new passenger trains will be put on the Southern between Greensboro and Raleigh next Sunday morning. This is the result of a petition that was before Col. Andrews, of Raleigh. The new train will leave Greensboro at 7:30 A. M., arriving at Raleigh at 10:30, and returning will leave Raleigh at 6:30 P. M., and arrive at Greensboro at 9:30. This has been a great necessity for years as this branch of the Southern is about the best paying section of their road, and there is a great amount of travel over the road.

Brunswick, Ga., January 17.—Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, arrived here this morning and went to Jekyl Island at once, to be the guest of friends at "The Millionaire's Club." He said he was here merely for a rest.

THE NEW "BETSY TOWN."

Big Celebration, Culmination of Great Work for Bladen.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Jan. 16.—We Elizabethtown people think Saturday such an epoch in our history, that if you do not object will give you a little sketch of the work done in the last four weeks.

Broad, straight streets took the place of the rambling walks that simply went around distributing projections; new bridges were placed where needed, and obstructing trees felled. Mr. R. S White was put in charge of this work in the residental portion of town, while the "New Town" lay in the hands of Mr. P. H. Myers, civil engineer for the V. & C. S. A road machine came into requisition, and feel utter complacency now in pointing out our streets.

In the prospective city, familiar names in the Colonial times appear: Slingsby, Craig, Owen, Morehead, Robeson, Brown, it intersects Broad, and leads to our Mecca, the depot. This is the heart of the place, if rallying point for all ages, conditions and classes of people stand for naught. It is to be really attractive in finish and size. A little distance up the tracks one sees the village of convict camps. These men are now clearing a farm of Mr. Wilton McLean's.

Saturday was the culminating time of all times. Before Elizabethtown had well stirred herself, wagons and every discription of vehicles were pouring in crowded to the limit. Swain's brother's best girl, every type of beauty was seen, every tint of the rainbow glittered in the costumes. Automobiles speed along the streets, often to the consternation of the country bred horse. Not a care marked the countenance, all were on the qui vive for the train which was somewhat behind time. Patience hath its reward. Eyes that never expected the sight in Elizabethtown, flashed with with gladness, as the mighty monster steamed and puffed into view.

Somehow the band always gets into notice first, and directly they were in line, while the famous Penny Bros. mounting their car of state, proclaimed the willingness to dispense bargains at phenominally low prices. Some joined that procession, others wandered idly around catching every straw of amusement that came their way, while the more seriously inclined repaired to the Court House where our foremost educator, Prof. W. W. Woodhouse, of White Oak, assisted by Miss McFadgen, held a teachers' meeting.

A lad, Carson Hall, drew the free lot, Master McGill, the five dollars, while the crowd indiscriminately grabbed for the shower of silver. After this interesting climax the public were invited to the dinner served at the Academy. Needless to say, Elizabethtown did not forget her duty in this line.

In the throng, variously estimated at from three to five thousand souls, one could not specialize persons, with two exceptions, Judge Lyon, and Mr. Wilton McLean, whose sale it was. Of course they were the observed of all. To Mr. McLean it must have been a thrilling day, for to him more than any other, we are indebted for the road that resurrects Elizabethtown from its lethargy, and bids her forge ahead. His assistants too, have given their best to the work, and to all we owe a debt of gratitude hardly possible to estimate in this its advent. Later on we can realize more thoroughly what it means.

All good things have a finish. With regret we saw the train flash around the curve, heard the boat give its summons to the passengers, and watched the receding turnouts of every discription, pass out of sight. Night closed in, and Elizabethtown was resting around the fireside recounting the glories of the day.

DOINGS AT A. & M. COLLEGE.

Much Interest Taken in Athletics—Faculty and Class Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18.—Monday night in Pullen Hall with the entire student body and faculty and a great number of visitors present, "Stunt Night" was re-originated at the A. & M., hereafter to be one of the biggest events of each college year.

"Stunts" were gotten up by the various student organizations in college, such as the different clubs, literary societies, Bible classes, Red and White, the official organizaton of the Athletic Association, Glee Club, Ringtail Band, etc., all of the "stunts" being very credible. "Stunt Night" helps to bring all the students and the various students' activities in closer touch with each other.

The January dance of the Thalian German Club was given in Pullen Hall Saturday night, thirty-odd couples being present and enjoying the pleasures of the dance, which was led by C. A. Stedman, dancing with Miss Griselle Hinton. Quite a number of young ladies who are now visiting in Raleigh were present.

Captain Sherman has issued his call for candidates for the track team, about 35 men reporting for the cross-country running which is now being done as preliminary training.

A. & M. will be without the services of Gantt, Cooper and Hartsell, of last year's track team, as the first two are not in college and Hartsell has decided to quit track work. The above men were among the best on the Red and White team, and their loss will be keenly felt. There are a good many promising candidates in the Freshman class who will help to fill the vacant places on last year's track team.

At a meeting of the Junior Classes last Saturday it was decided to elect the men who are to have in charge the publication of the 1912 Agromeck at once, and the following men were elected: Editor-in-chief, C. E. Brown; Assistant Editor-in-chief, W. H. Graham, Jr.; Business Manager, H. M. Walton; Assistant Business Manager, O. W. Smith; Art Editors, L. N. Rigan, W. W. Williams and S. C. Bruner. The editor will later select either six or eight associate editors to aid in securing material for the annual.

How about constructive alderman ship?

Look out! They will get a piece of your country.

New counties would like to swipe territory with good roads. This shows what is through of good roads.

An aviator is training a dog to take flights with him in his aeroplane. We should say he should pick out a sky terrier for the purpose.

"Is perpetual motion possible?" inquires a contemporary. Well, we should say it is, and it can be proven by starting a movement and keeping it everlastingly going for the purpose of making Wilmington a manufacturing city.

A contemporary says "Dr. Cook again tells the story of his discovery of the North Pole." It's to be hoped that he is not trying to tell a bigger one than his first noted success in picturesque story telling. Peary couldn't equal it if he tried.

The Charleston News and Courier says: "Next to the prettiest woman in the world drinks goat's milk and lives in London." She may drink goat milk all right, but she will have to come to Wilmington to get next to the prettiest woman in the world.

It is announced by the Southern Commercial Congress that 46,000 boys in the South are raising corn and making big records. If the boys stick to it they will soon be able to give employment to all the men who have been wasting their time raising cain.

That million dollar authorization of bonds by the Legislature for more public buildings at the State capital does not coincide very well with the report of the State Treasurer submitted earlier in the session and with the plea for economy contained in the Governor's message at the opening of the Assembly a little more than two weeks ago. Better have a care!

Miss Eleanor Sears, of Boston and Newport society, likes aviation and wants to induce women to aviate (new coinage). We have seen some of them "go up in the air" but there are a very few we would like to see take the real risk of going up in an aeroplane. Of course, a lot of people wouldn't mind if Carrie Nation should go up and remain to assist the "Old Woman Who Sweeps the Skies."

The Wilmington Commercial Club combines business and pleasure. At its meetings a dainty lunch is served, cigars are passed around and then comes committee reports and spiels, all laden with ideas aimed to promote the interests and progress of Wilmington. Tonight the club will hold its monthly meeting and luncheon, and some exceedingly interesting and important matters will be reported for consideration. No one should miss these profitable and enjoyable occasions.

A legalized primary election wouldn't have far to go to be more satisfactory than a convention. Those who favor the referedum do so because it gives the soverign people the right of declaring at the polls what their will is concerning a law or a measure which concerns them. Yet these same people are opposed to a ballot primary so the voters can express their will as to candidates. If the referendum is ood the legalized primary is good for the same reason.

FORESTRY CONVENTION.

Eastern North Carolina should be well represented at the Forestry Convention called by the North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey to meet in Raleigh Wednesday, February 1st. This is one vitally important question in which our people must become interested, and they should take that interest now, for the movement in behalf of North Carolina's forests is all but too late as it is. However, right now is the time to begin an earnest and practical movement to conserve our forests, protect them from destruction by fire, vandalism and misuse.

Our forests constitute one of the State's greatest resources and while they have been a source of great wealth, they will annually become more valuable as the State develops. It is not too late to protect what we have left and to enter upon a policy of conservation and even of reforestation. We have been prodigal in the use of the State's great forests and we have allowed millions of dollars in timber values to be annually swept away by fires and young forests to be destroyed by hogs and cattle. It is time to take this matter under advisement and it is hoped the progressive men in all the counties will seriously consider this cause and go to Raleigh to attend the convention next Wednesday week.

A press bulletin from the North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey states that North Carolina is now the fourth State in the Union in the amount of lumber cut annually, the output last year totalling 2,178,000,000 feet. This means the astonishing annual average cut, for timber alone, of 700 board feet for every acre of woodland in the State.

The people of the State are warned that, though this takes no account of the large amount of timber cut for wood pulp, tanic acid, tan bark, poles, cross-ties, etc., the great annual consumption is twice as large as the amount being grown each year. Besides the large, though legitimate drain upon our great resources, there comes in the inexcusable annual loss from neglect and carelessness, a drain on the forests than can and should be stopped. In fact, the survey does well to emphasize the fact that "it must be stopped if our valuable wood-using industries are to be perpetuated." The statistics kept show that last year the damage from forest fires amounted to 10 per cent. of the gross income from the sale of stumpage, a loss which, it is truly impressed, no business can stand very long. This enormous damage and the necessity for caring for our forests is not a question for debate, for every intelligent North Carolinian recognizes it and deprecates it. The only question now is to devise plans and take steps by legislation and other means to put an end to devastation from whatever source it rises.

It is with the object of thoroughly discussing this question, and, if possible, formulating a forest policy for the State, that the forest convention has been called to meet at the State Capital.

DEATH OF REV. W. L. CUNINGGIM.

There is something strange in the fact that we grieve when the good die and that we go about sorrowing when it comes to parting with them. When a man dies and it is "well with his soul" is not death mere transition to a more perfect existence beyond? According to the belief of the Christian world it is, but how is it that we grieve over the inevitable circumstance of death, which, according to Christian belief, is the hour of triumph for those who have so lived that the grave has no victory?

Nevertheless, we are pained at parting with our loved ones and friends here, and so it is that we must express a deep sense of sorrow at the death of the Rev. W. L. Cuninggim, who passed away at Raleigh on Wednesday morning shortly following midnight, after a week's illness with pneumonia.

It is hard to think of Mr. Cuninggim as dead, for only several weeks ago he left Wilmington apparently in the best of health, a man in the meridian of life, with prospective years ahead of him. He was aged only 55 years, and is cut off at a time of great usefulness in the ministry. He was a strong member of the North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, and for years has been the conference secretary, a position he filled with peculiar efficiency and ability. He was re-elected term after term and that was the highest tribute for the highly satisfactory manner in which he performed his duty.

Mr. Cuninggim, at the time of his death, was Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, to which he was sent by the last Conference. In December last he left Wilmington where he had finished up four years of the most acceptable ministry as Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District. No minister was ever more greatly beloved in this city than Mr. Cuninggim. He was a man of splendid education and gentle refinement and was a preacher of great earnestness, ability and attractiveness. No gentler or more sympathetic soul ever lived and those who knew him for his pure and spotless character ever became more attached to him the longer it was their pleasure and good fortune to know him. He was truly a good man, and his death is sincerely mourned in Wilmington where the hundreds of friends of the family can but feel the deepest sympathy for the bereaved wife and loved ones he leaves to bear up under their sore bereavement.

A CARE FOR THE FUTURE.

There is food for thought in a communication published on this page from the pen of Mr. H. C. McQueen, one of the largest and most successful bankers of the State. Mr. McQueen is not an alarmist, his ideas are advanced and progressive; he has, moreover, the opportunities for observing, vouchsafed to few men, yet he sees in the signs of the times a tendency towards too much waste and extravagence; a disregard of the "cost." There can be no doubt this is growing to be a National evil. It has invaded the Southland; the North has already realized it and has in part suffered the inevitable consequences. In the South the tendency is perhays yet only in its incipiency, but it is dangerous and the warning contained in the very thoughtful communication of this banker and business man is worthy of the most serious consideration by the people themselves, who alone have it in their power to stem the tide. There can be no doubt. "we are living too fast;" there is little thought for the future. The sooner we realize and reflect upon these matters, least will be the magnitude of the inevitable consequences when they come. It was James J. Hill, who observed some months ago that it was not so much the higher cost of living that was the matter with the country, but the cost of higher living. The aphorism is not without its pith and point to this very day.

BAD FINANCIERING.

In a paragraph the Durham Herald mentions something that is as pertinent and pointed as it is important in serving to call attention to the absurdity in the kind of financiering which conceives that a bond issue can be taken care of without a sinking fund. Says the Herald:

"If the State is dead set on an enormous bond issue it should at the same time establish a sinking fund so that when the bonds fall due it will not have to refund the debt with other bonds."

As a matter of fact, all bond issues are under laws providing for a sinking fund, or else the enabling act would be slack-twisted in the extreme. Nevertheless, it has been observed that some bond issues in this State have fallen due without a fund to redeem them. This shows that the sinking fund was not set aside, for, if it had been, the money would have been on hand to redeem bonds as fast as they fall due. If there is no sinking fund whose fault is it? If a sinking fund is kept what right has anybody to spend it? It is bad financiering to make a public debt without making provision to pay it when it is due and that is what a sinking fund is for.

It is said "Uncle Joe" chews tobacco. They can always bring in some extenuating circumstances for a fellow when he's almost in.

The author of the poem entitled "Learn to do without" must have came to the conclusion that what he advises is the best thing to do when it is so hard to get.

When women get on the jury men would prefer to plead guilty than take chances with a jury which might be controlled by the impression that he looks like a man who has done something.

Colonel Watterson of the Louisville Courier-Journal says "it is hard to lose the savings of a lifetime." Well, then don't try to get rich quick by beating the other fellow at his own game.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Whenever a United States Senator is to be elected the Legislature and all concerned oct in the very best way to strengthen the position of those that are trying to have Senators elected by direct vote of the people.—Columbua State.

They were all in Baltimore last night, all the Democrats that happened to be around, but Lodge was not there, nor Cannon, nor Crumpacker, nor Lorimer, nor Ballinger. It was a respectable assemblage, sure enough.—Charleston News and Courierd, Jan. 19.

The Colonel says in the current issue of The Outlook that his New Nationalism represents the greatest movement of the day. He may mean the greatest movement of republicans from office, for the Colonel and his new nationalism largely were responsible for the election of so many democratic governors and members of Congress last November.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

In the Chattanooga Times "A Mother" protests against the promiscuous house-to-house distribution of samples of medicine, soaps, washing powders, insect lotions, face bleaches, etc., as a constant menace to child life. Some years ago Charlotte adopted an ordinance against the dangerous practice, and its example should be followed by Chattanooga and all other towns.—Charlotte Observer.

A bill was introduced to outlaw near-beer in North Carolina. Since its innovation in the State near-beer has not made many friends. Posing as nothing more pretentious than "soda water," it has none the less played no inconspicuous part in thwarting the purpose of the State prohibition law. In many places it has been used as a mask to dispense the real stuff, and in all sections it is reported as a menace to the proper enforcement of the law. The great majority of people who voted for prohibition did not contemplate the inauguartion of this near substitute for the real thing, and there is abundant evidence to prove that that same majority is desirous of expelling near-beer from the State. It is most likely that the Legislature will pass the bill introduced, and there will be few regrets among gentlemen favoring strict enforcement of laws on the statutes, whether they be prohibitionists or antis.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

A NOTE OF CAUTION.

There Should be Conservation and a Care for Future.

Editor Star:—It seems a pity that the people do not realize the mischief going on in denuding our forests of the trees. Every lumber manufacturer will tell you that the business is unsatisfactory yet he goes about heedlessly cutting up the timber which it takes nature several generations to replace. We can make a crop of cotton, corn, peanuts, etc., every year, but not so with the timber which takes fifty or a hundred years to attain the necessary growth for making into lumber. There ought to be concerted action to conserve this one of nature's best gifts to the land, especially when everyone knows that there are more evils in its destruction than the mere waste of timber. Another thing might be profitable to think of while we are thundering along in our wonderful prosperity. During the past decade people have prospered so that there is no thought of a possible check to the mad rush for riches. They do not think and talk of thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars, but of millions. It is true that abundant crops and high prices have increased the country's wealth almost beyond comprehension, but there is danger that this very fact, unless we are careful, may bring with it evil, in needless waste and extravagance.

History, the only guide to judge the future, teaches that abundant prosperity with waste and extravagance have invariably been followed by depression and disaster. From an economic point of view I have no fault to find with those who are pecuniarily able to indulge in high living and to enjoy every luxury within their reach. In this country of freedom and equality the greatest danger is the unhealthy example to those who cannot afford it, and a temptation to do and live beyond their means, and to mortgage the future. This involves excessive borrowing and speculation, which means trouble sooner or later, and when the pinch comes it is usually when our friends are not able to help us.

I am not writing as an alarmist, I believe in progress and in growth and in improvement, I believe also in economy and saving, and living within one's means, and I think those whose occupation leads them to observe the trend of business conditions might at least sound a note of caution to take care while we can, while those conditions are sound, and avoid the possible danger of forgetting that "They who sow to the wind will reap the whirlwind."

BLOOD TROUBLES
CONSTITUTIONAL INFECTION

Constitutional Blood Poison is the most insidious of all diseases. It begins in an insignificant manner, usually the appearance of a tiny sore being the only outward evidence of its presence. But down in the blood the treacherous infection is at work, and in a short time its chain of symptoms begin to crop out. The mouth and throat ulcerate, skin eruptions break out, sores and ulcers appear on the body, the glands in the groin swell, and sometimes the hair comes out. Mineral medicines cannot cure Constitutional Blood Poison; they only shut the disease up in the system to smoulder and await an opportunity of breaking out afresh. The only possible way to cure the disease is to REMOVE the germs from the blood. S. S. S. goes into the blood, and while removing the infection makes the blood pure, fresh and healthy. This causes a general upbuilding of the entire system, and when S. S. S. has made a cure there is no return of the hideous symptoms. S. S. S. is made entirely of vegetable matter, containing not the least particle of mineral in any form. It is a perfectly safe medicine and a certain cure for blood poison. We have a Home treatment book which we will be glad to send free to all who write and request it, also any medical advice without charge.

WHITEVILLE NEWS.

Smallpox Near Wananish—Personal and General Items of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Jan. 18.—There is a white family near Wananish, several members of which are down with smallpox. The house is quarantined, but it is not thought that the disease will spread. It begins to look as if this dread disease will spread over the entire county. It is carried by negroes. There is some talk of compulsory vaccination. Mr. A. M. Benson, of Evergreen, says there have been a number of cases among his tenants, but he thinks they now have it under control.

Work of improving the streets of Whiteville started this week. A squad of hands are at work grading off and draining Madison street, preparatory to putting down the paving material. Mayor Davis will not give out the work by contract, but hire hands and a competent man to supervise the work, and says he can by these means save the town a thousand or $1,500.

The death at his home in Florida of Mr. Stanley, president of the Council Tool Company, of Wananish, was a great shock to people here. He was born and raised in Columbus county and was universally respected.

Dr. James Williamson, of Cerro Gordo, but whose home is in Florence, S. C., has returned from the hospital in Richmond, Va., where he underwent two operations. Both operations were successful and the doctor is doing well. Dr. Williamson organized and owns a controlling interest in the large lumber plant at Cerro Gordo, and is one of the county's most honored and progressive citizens. His many friends throughout the State will be delighted to know of his recovery.

Mrs. Clarence Richardson has been quite sick, but we are glad to know she is somewhat better. Mrs. Richardson is one of the most popular and beloved ladies in our town.

Mr. J. E. Thompson, one of the largest builders in this section, in speaking to the Star's correspondent this week, said he knew of no town that was more steadily growing than Whiteville. He says while there is no boom here, new houses are going up all over the place, and they are building all the time. He says he has constant calls for contracts to build residences and stores.

Mr. Frank Schulken, of Vineland, is erecting on Madison avenue one of the largest store buildings in town, which will add greatly to the looks of the business section of Vineland.

The convicts are now at work grading a splendid road, 30 feet wide, leading out from Boardman in the direction of Evergreen. It is said that the Commissioners will adopt the wise policy of completing one highway before moving the hands to another.

GEN. ROBT. E. LEE'S BIRTHDAY

Anniversary of the Natal Day of the Great Chieftain Will be Observed in This City—Dinner to Veterans—Exercises.

In common with other cities and towns throughout the Southland today, Wilmington will appropriately celebrate the birthday anniversary of the South's great chieftain, Gen. Robt. E. Lee. Dinner will be served the veterans in the Masonic Temple at noon by Cape Fear Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, following which appropriate and impressive exercises will be held in the Academy of Music to which the public will be invited.

Cape Fear Camp, No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, will hold a meeting at 11 o'clock this morning at the W. L. I. armory, after which badges will be given all veterans in good standing. The old soldiers will then march to the Masonic Temple, where they will be guests of nonor at a dinner given by the Daughters. Following the dinner the veterans will return to the armory to participate in the parade. The procession will form on Market street, the right resting on Fourth street, in the following order: The marshal and his aides; Cape Fear Camp, No. 254, U. C. V.; Geo. Davis Camp, Sons of Veterans, Wilmington Light Infantry; Col. Walker Taylor's Brigade. The procession will move promptly at 2:30 o'clock down Market street to Front, up Front to Chesnut, up Chesnut to Third, down Third to Princess, thence to Academy of Music, where the exercises of the day will be held.

The exercises will open with music by the orchestra, after which prayer will be offered by Rev. J. C. Wooten, pastor of Grace Methodist church. After a selection, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," by the male quartette, the orator of the occasion, Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church, will be presented. At the conclusion of his address a quartete composed of ladies will sing "The Conquered Banner;" after which Gen. James I. Metts, chief marshal, will read Gen. Lee's farewell address; the audience will sing, "The Old North State;" Crosses of Honor will be presented, and the orchestra will play "Dixie," following which the benediction will be pronounced by Rev. Mr. Wooten.

The arrangements for the observance have been hade by committees from the Daughters and Veterans and every detail has been looked after. The Daughters are expected to receive the veterans in the library of the Masonic Temple at 12 o'clock and the dinner will be served immediately afterward in the banquet hall above.

REV. MR. CUNNINGGIM'S DEATH.

His Passing Caused Profound Sorrow Among Friends in the City.

The announcement in the telegraphic columns of the Star yesterday morning of the death in Raleigh Tuesday night of Rev. W. L. Cunninggim, former presiding elder of Wilmington district of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, who just entered a few weeks ago upon his work as presiding elder of Raleigh district, was received with profound sorrow by hundreds and hundreds of friends in this city and throughout this section of the State. Mr. Cunninggim had been ill only about a week and many friends in this city had not received any tidings of his illness, and were, therefore totally unprepared for the announcement of his passing.

Mr. Cunninggim resided in Wilmington for a number of years and was universally beloved and esteemed. He was first pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church, which he served for four years and in 1906 he was sent to the Wilmington district as presiding elder, rounding out the time limit of four years with the last session of the annual conference, when he was appointed presiding elder of the Raleigh district. He was greatly beloved throughout this district and it was regretted that the rules of the church made it necessary that he be transferred at the last conference. He was prominent in the conference, which he served as secretary for 18 or 20 years. He was an able and fearless minister and his sermons were always inspiring and of the thought-producing kind. He was about 55 years old and is survived by his wife, one brother, Rev. J. I. Cunninggim, of Nashville, and one sister, Mrs. R. W. Bailey of Louisburg, whom is extended the tenderest sympathies of hosts of friends in this city and section in their bereavement.

DECIDED TO BE VACCINATED.

Warrants Issued for William and Henry Padrick, of Cape Fear.

William and Henry Padrick, of Cape Fear township, for whom warrants were issued Tuesday for failure to comply with the recent order of the County Sanitary Committee, came to the city yesterday morning and were vaccinated by Dr. C. D. Bell, after which they appeared at the Sheriff's office, where the warrants were served on them. The cases were to have been tried in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, but were continued unti. Saturday. Sheriff Cowan endeavored to serve the warrants on the Padricks Tuesday afternoon, but could not locate them. He was told that one of the defendants had gone to Norfolk and the other to Florida. The defendants probably heard that the Sheriff was after them and decided it would be better to be vaccinated, hoping that by this the court would deal more leniently with them.

GUARDIAN APPOINTED.

H. E. Pridgen Declared Incompetent to Manage His Own Affairs.

Henry E. Pridgen, said to be a native of Bladen county, but who has spent the past 20 years in the West, coming here recently from California, was yesterday declared by a jury to be incompetent to manage his own affairs and Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank, was named as guardian by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of Superior Court. Mr. Pridgen was taken yesterday afternoon to Morganton where he will receive treatment in a private sanitarium. He was accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox.

It seems that Mr. Pridgen arrived here a few days ago and deposited $3,800 with the Southern National Bank, the amount being in the form of checks on New York banks. The man was very nervous and stated that he feared that certain people in California would prosecute and blackmail him under certain charges. Pridgen asked to be directed to a lawyer and held an interview with George Rountree, Esq. Mr. Evans reported to the Clerk of Superior Court the condition of Pridgen and a jury was summoned yesterday morning to inquire into the matter. The jury was composed of Messrs. G. W. Chesnut, T. H. Wright, W. H. Howell, Fred W. Bonitz, George Harriss, Harvey Cox, Marsden Bellamy, Norwood Orrell, J. O. Reilly, Michael Cronly, James F. Woolvin and C. R. Davis. The jury rendered a verdict as above noted and Mr. Evans was appointed guardian.

Pridgen has been employed on a ranch near Santa Paula, California. When he stated that certain charges had been or would be preferred against him, Mr. Evans telegraphed to the superintendent of the ranch to ascertain whether or not the statements of Mr. Pridgen were correct. The superintendent replied at once to the effect that Pridgen had been employed there for several years and was regarded as one of the best and most faithful men on the reservation; that there were no charges whatever against him; that two or three weeks ago Pridgen seemed to get very much confused and left that section for his former home in this State. As soon as Mr. Evans found out that Mr. Pridgen was suffering from some nervous disturbance and that he was temporarily bereft of his reasoning powers as to certain matters, he told his new customer that he would either have to draw his money from the bank or have a guardian appointed. Mr. Pridgen agreed to the appointment of a guardian and it was at his earnest request that Mr. Evans consented to act in this capacity. Mr. Pridgen has gone to a private sanitarium at Morganton and it is thought that he will be entirely recovered within a few weeks.

THREE HUNDRED VACCINATED.

People Comply With Provisions of Summons Served by Officers.

It is thought that comparatively few warrants will have to be issued in Wilmington against persons because of refusal to comply with the compulsory vaccination order, as those on whom summons have been served by police officers are being vaccinated right along either in the city health office or by their family physicians. More than 300 persons were vaccinated in the city health office yesterday, while a great many others were vaccinated by their family physician. Many of those vaccinated yesterday were served with notices Tuesday that unless they complied with the order within 48 hours warrants would be issued for them.

Four patrolmen were on the work yesterday searching out those who have not been vaccinated and notifying them that this important duty must be attended to within 48 hours. Two officers were at work in the southern section and two in the northern end of the city. Four additional officers will be assigned on the outskirts and working toward the heart of the city. Physicians are this week paying a second visit to the schools of the city to see whether or not the vaccinations about ten days ago were successful, and also to vaccinate any new pupils who have entered school wihout being vaccinated.

BASKETBALL AT BRIGADE.

Game Tomorrow Night With Wilmington High School Team.

The athletic committee of the Boys' Brigade announces that a game of basketball will be played Friday night between the High School team and a picked team from Company B. of the Brigade. The High School will line up as follows: Smith, W., and Morrison, F., forward; McKoy, H., center; L. Boon and L. Stein, guards, and the following will compose the team for Brigade: Branch and Register, H. forwards; Dixon, C., center; Sholar, R., and McCartney, J., guards.

The members of both teams have been playing basketball for some time and are thoroughly familiar with the rules of the game, hence an exciting and interesting contest is expected tomorrow evening. The game will be called at 8:15 o'clock. No admission will be charged and ladies are cordially invited to be present.

The second series of games between Brigade teams for the Honnet trophy will begin Friday night, January 27th. Many of the men who were indisposed because of vaccination and other causes are almost fully recovered and in a few days will be in condition to get into the game.

THE EARNING POWER OF MONEY.

If you will carefully cast over in your mind, and pick out ten of the wealthiest people you know, you will find that in every case years ago each one of them or their ancestors worked hard, saved part of their earnings, and now they or their children are getting the benefit of it.

You can do the same. Only you must make a beginning. You make money, why not save a part of it now, and later on reap the benefit? It is a wise thing to do, and the thoughtful people who are doing it are the ones who live in ease.

SUNDAY Y. M. C. A. RALLY DAY

The Work of the Organization to be Brought Before Public at Church Services and at Meeting at Academy of Music.

Sunday, January 22nd, has been designated as the annual rally day of the local Y. M. C. A., when the work of the organization will be brought before the people. The ministers of the city will mention the work of the association at their services in the morning and in the afternoon there will be Rally Day exercises in the Academy of Music, preparations for which are now being made by General Secretaries J. B. Huntington and H. G. Bowden.

Rt. Rev. Rob't Strange, Bishop of the Diocese of Eastern North Carolina, will preside, and the committee has been so fortunate as to secure the Hon. W. B. Stubbs, a prominent layman of Savannah, Ga., to make the address of the occasion. The Grace Methodist church choir and the Acme Male quartette will render selections during the service. The committee desires it stated that there will be no collection or call for subscriptions to the work at this meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend the exercises.

The annual meeting of the members of the association will be held in the parlors of the association Friday night. Rev. J. C. Wooten, pastor of Grace Methodist church, will make the annual address to the members. Several musical numbers will be rendered and refreshments served. This meeting will be for members only.

With the opening of the gymnasium after the holidays all those who are interested in basket ball will be glad to know that arrangements are being made for plenty of this sport during the remainder of the Winter. Some weeks ago the teams of the Senior class were organized and they will play their first game Saturday night. As has been the custom, a small admission fee will be charged to cover the expense of getting trophy cups for the winning teams. These cups are to be won three successive seasons before they can be claimed by any one team. It is the desire of those getting up the league that the teams become permanent, each team electing its own captain for each season and keeping its place in the league just as the league baseball teams do. The committee has had the seats in the gallery raised and these will be reserved for those who desire them. A Junior game will be played at 7:30 o'clock and the Senior games at 8 o'clock.

At a meeting last night of the Senior League captains, Mr. K. W. Price was elected president of the league; Mr. H. W. Woolcott, chairman of arbitration committee, and Dr. J. W. Stanley secretary and treasurer.

FOURTH STREET BRIDGE.

tate Corporation Commission Declines to Take Action.

The Commissioners of Streets have received a communication from the tate Corporation Commission in reply to the letter written some weeks ago asking if that body had the power to take acton on a formal complant that mght be filed later against the Seabard Air Line Railroad Company for failure to provide a steel bridge over its tracks at Fourth street in lieu of the wooden structure now in use, or to erect a new bridge at Fifth street so that when one bridge was out of commission the other would be open for traffic. The reply was to the effect that the matter was not one for action on the part of the Corporation Commission. The Commissioners will doubtless proceed to take some other step through which better bridge facilities will be provided.

THOUGHTFUL AND GENEROUS.

Globe Baking Company to Distribute Bread and Rolls to Poor.

The Globe Baking Company which recently began business on North Fourth street, with Mr. J. E. Boylan as manager, yesterday did the thoughtful and generous act in donating to the poor of the city 150 loaves of bread and rolls, fresh and palatable from their bakery. The offer is made through Miss Carrie Price, secretary of the Associated Charities, and today the delivery will be made to every home upon her order. The action of the company through Manager Boylan will be greatly appreciated and shows a spirit of that broad generosity which should make for the success of Wilmington's newest and most promising enterprise.

News of the Shipping.

The British steamer Snowden Range, Capt. Dickinson, arrived yesterday from Leith, Scotland, with cargo of sulphate of ammonia and will discharge part here to the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Co. The steamer will go from here to Savannah, Ga. The Austrian steamer Georgia, Capt. Bohm, which discharged fertilizer material, here cleared yesterday for Tampa, Fla.

NEGRO SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

Serious Difficulty at Wrightsville Saturday Night—Arrests.

Barlinza Dixon, colored, is in the James Walker Memorial Hospital in a serious condition as the result of assaults made upon him Saturday night at Wrightsville Station, and Bill McColl, Arthur Mandy, Oscar and Richard Suggs, colored, are in the county jail in default of bonds to await hearing on charge of being responsible for the man's wounds, having been arrested last night by Constable Savage.

Information was received here yesterday morning of the difficulty and warrants were issued by Justice Harriss for the four negroes named above. The warrants were placed in the hands of Constable Savage, who, accompanied by Mr. Thos. Williamson, went to Wrightsville last night and took the negroes into custody, arriving in Wilmington at 11 o'clock. The negroes are committed to jail in default of bonds until the hearing which is set for Friday at 12 o'clock.

It is stated that Nixon was at the Wrightsville station of the suburban line Saturday night in an intoxicated condition, when he was attacked by Oscar and Richard Suggs, colored youths, one striking him with a beer bottle and the other using a rock. Later, it is charged, that Bill McColl and Arthur Mandy, negro men, came up and one of the two cut Nixon with a knife. Nixon is said to be in a serious condition as the result of the assaults upon him and it is feared that his skull is fractured.

SECOND DAY OF HEARING.

Mr. Hugh MacRae Still Giving Testimony Before Commissioner.

The second day of the hearing before George H. Howell, Esq., commissioner, in the case of Wm. E. Worth against the Knickerbocker Trust Co., Hugh MacRae & Co., and others, was consumed with the testimony of Mr. Hugh MacRae, who was also on the stand at both sessions Tuesday. The examination of Mr. MacRae has not yet been concluded and he will be on the stand again this morning. The hearing will likely continue for several days yet as Messrs. M. F. H. Gouverneur and H. M. Chase are to be examined. The order requiring these gentlemen to appear before the commissioner did not require that they produce any letters, papers or other documents of the company, as this phase of the case is to be argued before Judge Peebles at the January term of New Hanover Superior Court.

GREEK SERVICES SUNDAY.

Will be Conducted by Rev. Joachim Gortzos, of Charleston.

Rev. Joachim Gortzos, rector of the Greek Orthodox Church of Charleston, S. C., will arrive in the city Saturday to conduct services Sunday for the Greek citizens in Wilmington. Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton has very graciously placed the Parish House of St. James' Church at the disposal of the Greek colony and the service will be held there from 11 A. M. to 1 P. M. The coming of the Greek divine is anticipated with much interest by the Greeks of this community and he will doubtless be heard by a large congregation. Mr. Gortzos is an able divine and the Greeks of this city are anxious to hear him. Doubtless some arrangements will be made in the near future by which regular services will be held for the Greek citizens.

Board of Survey Held.

A board of survey was held at Navassa Tuesday afternoon to determine the extent of the damage to the British steamship Elverida, which went ashore on the Cape Fear bar January 7th, and came off with the assistance of the tug Blanche. The board was composed of J. C. Stewart, special agent for Lloyd's; Capt. Louis H. Skinner, and Capt. W. N. Harriss, the latter two being port wardens. The steamer was at Navassa discharging cargo of kainit. The surveyors found no apparent damage to the ship and in their judgment the vessel is seaworthy and in condition to proceed on the voyage.

Proposition from Mr. Hooper.

The officers and directors of the Tarrymoore Hotel Company yesterday received from Mr. Chas. E. Hooper, of Charlote, a proposition to manage the hotel the coming season. The proposition will be considered at a meeting of the stockholders to be held within the next few days. It is understood that propositons have been received from two or three other prominent hotel managers and all will be considered at the same time. The officers and directors of the company are more concerned just now in the contemplated improvements to the hotel than they are in the selection of a manager.

Repairing the Yacht Here.

The yacht Adelaide, which arrived here the first of the week slightly damaged as a result of running into a bridge while she was passing through a canal, is being repaired at Skinner's shipyard and it will be several days before she can proceed. The yacht is bound from New York to Tampa, Fla., and is one of the best appointed of the several that have visited the port this season.

Entertainment Postponed.

The entertainment that had been planned by the Brotherhood Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church for Friday evening of this week, has been indefinitely postponed. This was found necessary for various reasons, but it is hoped that arrangements can be made to carry out the original programme at an early date.

CAROLINA INSURANCE CO.

Annual Meeting of Stockholders Held Yesterday at Noon.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina Insurance Company was held yesterday at noon in the office of the company, No. 12 Princess street, with practically all the stock represented. Reports of the president, Mr. R. R. Bellamy, and secretary and treasurer, Mr. Martin Willard, showed the affairs of the company to be in excellent shape and the business of the past year to have been very encouraging. The secretary and treasurer reported that the surplus and assets of the company had increased over the figures for the year preceding and also that the dividends had been increased to eight per cent. The old officers were re-elected as follows: President, R. R. Bellamy; vice president, H. C. McQueen; secretary and treasurer, Martin Willard. Mr. Sol. Sternberger was elected a member of the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the removal to another city of Mr. I. J. Sternberger. The other members of the board of directors were re-elected. The board of directors held a meeting following the session of the stockholders but only routine matters were considered.

SUPPER AND MEETING.

Members of Commercial Club Will Gather This Evening.

The first meeting and supper of the new year of the Commercial Club, an auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce, will be held this evening at 7 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce on North Front street. The acceptances to the invitations sent out some days ago by Secretary J. A. McGeachy indicates a large attendance of the business men of the city. Supper will be served at 7 o'clock, immediately following which many matters of interest will be discussed by those present. uneral of Mr. K. H. Snell.

NO CHOICE AT ALBANY.

Senatorship Vote Remains About the Same—Expect Dark Horse.

Albany, N. Y., January 19.—The United States Senatorship puzzle is as intricate tonight as ever. The legislature today tried to choose the Democrat who will succeed Senator Chauncey M. Depew, but no candidate received the majority of votes necessary to election. Efforts to increase the following of William F. Sheehan, the leading candidate, or to unite the opposition on any other candidate thus far have proved fruitless. How long the deadlock will last no one ventures to say.

Mr. Sheehan, with ninety votes to his credit on the first joint ballot and within nine votes of election, may be no nearer Washington than Martin W. Littleton, or D. Cady Herrick, who received but two. In fact, there is a growing impression that if Sheehan cannot win the successful candidate is as likely as not to be some one whose name has not yet been proposed.

The one ballot taken today gave Mr. Sheehan 90 votes, Edward M. Shepard, 13; Alton B. Parker, 7; James W. Gerard, 3; Martin W. Littleton, 2, and D. Cady Herrick, 2. All these were Democratic votes. The Republicans voted solidly for their caucus choice, Senator Depew. Compared with the total vote of yesterday, when the Senate and assembly voted separate, the changes were insignificant. Mr. Sheehan lost one vote, Mr. Shepard one and Judge Parker and Justice Gerard each one.

That the "insurgents" regarded the result as a victory was apparent from their eagerness to continue balloting. But the party leaders had agreed to postpone further voting until tomorrow and although the Republicans stood ready to help the anti-Sheehan men force a second ballot on the spot, further action was delayed. The second joint ballot will occur at noon tomorrow.

The talk tonight was mainly of compromise candidates, and of whether the Sheehan leaders could prevent any more legislators from breaking away from the caucus selection.

Philadelphia, January 18.—Willie Hoppe tonight defeated Joe Mayer in the first block of their handicap billiard match by the score of 400 to 175.

DEFENDS CORPORATION TAX.

Solicitor General Lehmann Before the Supreme Court.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Solicitor General Lehmann, of the Department of Justice, today argued before the Supreme Court of the United States that the corporation tax provision of the Payne-Aldrich Tariff Act were constitutional. His argument is to constitute the principal defense of the law which has been called in question in 15 cases now before the court.

The Solicitor General told the court that the 15 cases before it had been brought by shareholders in corporations, who objected to the latter paying the tax. Each of the corporations had expressed an intention to obey the law.

"The government is here," said the Solicitor General, "to help the corporations pay the tax."

Every objection had been raised to the tax, Mr. Lehmann said, "that could be raised to any tax possible of being levied under the constitution.

The only limitation on the scope of the Federal government to tax, he said, applied to exposts. Possibly there was an implied limitation against taxation of the agencies and instrumentalities of State governments, he added. As to the mode of taxation, he said, the only limitations were the apportioning of direct taxes and the making of excises taxes uniform.

The corporation tax, according to the Solicitor General, violated none of the limitations. He described the tax as an excise tax, but said the fact that it made exemptions did not prevent it being uniform. The government had a right to look at more than the revenue to be obtained according to the Solicitor General; it had the right to consider the general welfare of the people in making classifications for taxation.

He declared that the tax was not upon an instrumentality of a State, a franchise to a corporation, but was upon the exercise of the report procured by the corporation.

CREDITORS SUE RAILROADS.

Result of Failure of Cotton Firm in Alabama Last Spring.

Decatur, Ala., January 18.—Attorneys representing the creditors of Knight, Yancey & Company, the Decatur cotton merchants, who failed last Spring for $6,000,000, filed here today suits against the Southern and the Louisville & Nashville railroads, for $40,000 and $14,000, respectively, in favor of the creditors of the Knight, Yancey Company. These suits are separate from the suits filed last Saturday against these companies for $2,200,000. It is said that other suits are likely to be filed and that the total amount ultimately sued for may reach $3,000,000 or more.

All these suits are brought in the name of German and English creditors of the Knight, Yancey Company.

Danderine

GROWS HAIR
PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes:
"As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.)

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

TO INVESTIGATE FATALITY.

Board Appointed by Naval Secretary —Bodies of Victims.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The accident on the United States battleship Delaware yesterday which killed eight men and seriously injured one will be investigated by a board which Secretary of the Navy Meyer appointed today.

The personnel of the board is as follows: Captain Nathaniel R. Usher, commanding the battleship Michigan; Captain Charles C. Rogers, of the Norfolk Navy Yard; Commander Kenneth McAlpine, inspector of Government machinery work at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, and Lieutenant Commander Stanford E. Moses, of the Norfolk Navy Yard.

The board will supplement the work of the board of investigation, which was appointed by Captain Gove, of the Delaware, immediately after the accident.

It is known at the Navy Department only that the accident was caused by the blowing out of three backheaders of a boiler. The backheaders constitute the juncture of the tubes with the boiler and such an accident as occurred on the Delaware is very unusual in the navy.

In fact, many officers express the belief that it is the first one on record.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 18.—The bodies of the eight victims, of the explosion yesterday aboard the battleship Delaware arrived at the Unuited States naval hospital shortly before noon today. Upon the same naval tug that bore the bodies of the victims from the Delaware was Eugene Phillips, who was probably fatally injured in the accident. Phillips was hastened to the hospital ward.

The next of kin of each of the dead seamen have been notified and the bodies as claimed will be forwarded to the homes of the deceased for burial.

The Delaware arrived at the navy yard from Hampton Roads shortly after noon.

Pritchard, formerly a United States Senator, and to the influence of a stirring temperance revival.

AWARDS FOR HEROISM.

Twenty-Six Honored By Carnegie Commission—Details.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 18.—Twenty-six awards in recognition of acts of heroism were made today by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission, 16 bronz and 10 silver medals besides cash awards being authorized. Nineteen awards were made in rescues or attempted rescues from drowning, three from fire, two from suffocation in wells, and one each from train and shooting. In nine instances the heroes lost their lives and the award is made to a member of the family.

One of the recipients of a silver medal is New York York's street cleaning commissioner, William H. Edwards, who figured in the incidents in connection with the shooting of Mayor William J. Gaynor on the deck of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse at Hoboken, N. J., on August 9th. The report of the commission's investigator says that he "saved indeterminate persons from being shot at the hands of an assassin, that Mayor Gaynor having been shot in the head at close range, Edwards threw himself on the man with the upraised pistol and bore him to the deck on his back. As Edwards fell on top of him the pistol was discharged again and the bullet grazed Edwards' forearm on the underside. Others hurried to pinion the man's arms, but before they accomplished it, the pistol was discharged a third time. Edwards then arrested the assailant.

LAST OF NOTED CRIMINAL

Man Who Committed Bold Robbery Dies at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Jan. 18.—The last chapter in the history of a noted criminal of a quarter of a century ago was written today in the death at a local hospital of John H. Aufdemort, convicted in 1884 of taking $30,000 from the New Orleans sub-treasury, where he was a clerk.

Under the eyes of the secret service men set to catch the thief, Aufdemort passed several thousand dollars in mutilated currency to a confederate on the outside of the building. Aufdemort served a five year term.

CURING CATARRH.

Accept Our Advice and Try this Remedy at Our Risk.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane, inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is, complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious affiictions.

We honestly believe Rexall Mucu-Tone will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form, to give Rexall Mucu-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that any one could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at—The Rexall Store, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company.

..Theatrical..

The rightful son of Uncle Sam is "Buster Brown" who will be seen at the Academy Saturday, at matinee and night with a big new edition of the play by the same name. He is loved and admired from coast to coast and the newest stage version of the youth's gayest caprices is offered this season with a lavish expenditure of money; it has been re-written upon a stupendous scale and everything is brand new except the name. Buster Brown has become a household favorite throughout the universe; a cast of forty persons has been engaged to make "Buster Brown" the reigning attraction of the season, and no pains have been spared to put the show on right. Every detail has been worked out by experts, and the show moves with unusual vim and vigor. A survival of the fittest proves conclusively that Buster Brown has come to stay.

Seats for both the matinee and night will go on sale at Plummer's tomorrow morning, the matinee sale opening at 10 o'clock. Prices for night go to $1.50 and for matinee to $1. The general admission at the matinee will be 50 cents.

Bandmaster Creatore.

Now that Creatore is soon to appear at the Academy, it is of interest to note the following from the Chicago American:

"Creatore came to Chicago yesterday, and in a few lively hours won his hearers' hearts. He is a leader who feels the sentiment of the music his band is playing, and whose enthusiasm appears boundless. His moments of repose are few. When he is not engaged in a frantic waving of arms he is entreating his musicians to play softer—piano, pianissimo, pianississimo. His beat is incisive, free and clear. There can be no mstaking what he means. His magnetism is irresistible. He fairly picks his band up in the climaxes and shakes it. One feels that every scrap of intensity has been urged from every player.

"Creatore made a pronounced hit, and his simple charm of manner was not a whit disturbed because of his success. Impassioned compositions requiring intensity of tone, precision and technical "facility" were done far and away better than any band we know. The "Carmen" music at the afternoon concert was an effort worthy any organization and a treat such as Chicagoans seldom enjoy."

Grand Theatre.

There is perhaps no other theatre in the entire country that can boast of as finely equipped moving picture house as can The Grand. In this house will be found an orchestra of picked musicians capable of playing the very best there is in the way of music. The musical selections are varied and contain selections that please all tastes. The services of a singer, namely, Mr. Harry Morgan, has been secured and it is seldom a singer of his ability is heard outside of New York City. Mr. Morgan is accompanied by the superb orchestra and a new illustrated song is used every day. Still another great feature is the splendid heating and ventilating system which was installed at a very large expense and which is considered by many the most important factor in a modern theatre. An obliging corps of ushers is always on hand to show patrons to the most desirable seats and lend any assistance possible. Wilmingtonians are indeed fortunate in having a theatre in their city at popular prices, as the class of performance offered would cost a quarter in any large city. Anyone not having visited the Grand will certainly become a regular patron by attending at once. For today's programme the management offers three up-to-date reels of pictures, an illustrated song and a special musical programme. The doors open at 11 A. M. daily with a continuous performance until 11 P. M.

The Crystal Palace.

The programme of vaudeville and pictures will be changed today. "A Servant Girl's Mishaps," will be played by Ellsley, Ottke and Ellsley. Stewart, the barrel jumper, will perform some more clever tumbles and contortion work. The Grand Opera selections sung by "Victor & Louise" have pleased and been a treat to the music lovers. Today they will render several numbers requested during the week. The motion pictures for today are "The Mermaid," and "The Mesh of the Net." Mr. Peiffer announces that amateur performances will be excluded this week.

At the Bijou Today.

The programme at the Bijou today will be featured with "In the Tall Grass Country," which is a picture that has boundless thrills that inspire and exhilirate with its heroic motives and situations. "An Affair of Heart" an excellent Biograph subject that will also prove of great interest, while "A Family of Vegetarians," is a delightful and interesting comedy. The ill is one of the best that has been fiered in some time.

WATSON SUCCEEDS ELKINS.

Democrat Nominated by West Virginia Legislature.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 18.—Clarence W. Watson, of Fairmont, a wealthy coal operator, owner of high bred horses, was tonight nominated by the Democrats of the West Virginia Legislature in caucus to fill out the term of Senator Stephen B. Elkins, Republican, deceased.

Watson had a long lead on the first ballot taken tonight and his nomination followed on the 11th ballot. Several previous ballots placed him near the goal, both the fifth and ninth bringing him within one of the required 40 votes.

The opposition made a determined effort to rally around Judge John H. Holt, of Huntington, but, when the break finally came, Watson won with 40 votes.

The final ballot stood: Watson 40; Holt, 17; Tierney 2; Cornwell 12; McGraw 3; Bennett 1; Edmiston 4.

The caucus then balloted on the long term now held by Senator Nathan B. Scott.

W. E. Chilton led on the second ballot, receiving 36 votes, or four less than the required number. John T. McGraw was second with 25. Chilton was soon nominated.

COTTON IS ADVANCING AGAIN

Market Active and Firmer on Bullish Trade Advices—Closed Firm 9 to 19 Points Higher—Feature Day.

New York, Jan. 18.—The cotton market was more active and firmer today on bullish foreign trade advices, claims of a better spot demand in the South and bullish rumors from Memphis as to probable ginning returns next Monday. Closing prices were at practically the best point and firm at a net advance of 9 to 19 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 10 points, generally 3 to 5 points higher in response to better cables than expected, larger Liverpool spot sales, and private advices attributing the Liverpool strength to bullish trade account and the publication of a circular by leading English authorities confirming their original crop estimate of 11,600,000 bales and their estimate of 12,500,000 bales for consumption providing the cotton be available.

The initial advances here attracted a renewal of local bear pressure which caused some early irregularity, but offerings were readily taken owing to a big demand for the near months from trade interests, some bull support for the later Spring and Summer positions, and covering by more timid shorts. After showing a net gain of about 12 to 16 points there was a reaction of 5 or 6 points under realizing but the market firmed up again later on continued support from trade interests and bullish spot advices from the South, reaching the best point during the last few minutes. Some of the early selling was supposed to be based on reports of further rains in the Southwest and the talk of domestic mill curtailment which included reports that South Carolina spinners had voted for five weeks cuitailment between now and the end of the season, while late in the day it was rumored that New England spinners would vote for a curtailment of about 25 per cent. Exports continued liberal and private wires from the South reported a continued demand for spots from abroad. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-16c higher. Latest rumors as to the probable amount of cotton ginned between January 1st and January 16th place it at about 175,000 bales against 140,000 for the same period last year.

STOCK MARKET STILL ACTIVE

Manipulation Forces A Factor Yesterday—Lacked Broad Demand—Prevailing Irregularity—Features.

New York, Jan. 18.—Certain characteristics of today's stock market gave color to the belief that manipulation forces are again active. The market lacked the broad support which has accompanied the recent enhancement of values, and many of the better known issues were under pressure during the greater part of the day.

Extensive profit-taking was responsible in large part for the prevailing irregularity, a further explanation of which may perhaps be found in the undue prominence which seemed to be accorded to stocks of a class whose pool affiliations have frequently been a subject of criticism in the past. Readiness to accept offerings on slight concessions steadied the market and restricted fluctuations for the most part to comparatively narrow limits.

Reading was again something of a speculative football, selling off abruptly before it ascended to a new high level, United States Steel was apparently offered freely at every attempt to advance the stock. The Harrimans were steady with the Hill issues off fractionally. Rock Island common and preferred opened with some show of strength and activity, but later sank into comparative obscurity. Pennsylvania and New York Central were at no time especially strong, particularly the form. Norfolk and Western, one of yesterday's spectacular features was dull and relatively heavier, presumably on intimations that recent talk of an increase in the dividend rate is at least premature.

Prices held firm in the early afternoon with the usual period of dullness, but in the final hour another buying movement in the coalers send Reading and Lehigh Valley up to highest prices, with concurrent gains in other standard stocks. In the final trading, however profit-taking brought some recessions, and the closing was generally unsettled.

Today was a record-breaker for many months in the bond market. Sales of Norfolk and Western convertibles, American Telephone and Telegraph convertibles, American Tobacco fours and Rock Island collateral trust issues were on an enormous scale, and comprised the greater part of the day's operations. Total sales par value $5,960,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 664,800 shares.

COTTON CLOSED FIRM.

Large Trader Figured on Market Yesterday—Report Curtailment.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Jan. 18.—After the liquidation of long cotton during the opening hour, caused by the reports of rain in Northern Texas, the market reacted, closing firm under the buying of May by a large trader, who is believed to have been selling his holdings of March during the past week. A rumor was current that the National Ginners' report would indicate 165,000 bales against earlier estimates of 200,000 bales or more. Considerable cotton was bought on this rumor early in the day.

After the close, dispatches were received from Boston stating that the Arkwright Club of Cotton Manufacturers had decided on a curtailment of 25 per cent. to commerce at once. Telegrams were received from Gainesville, Texas, stating heavy rain there, general rains in North Texas and Oklahoma. Liverpool should advance some six points tomorrow.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

STRANGER DIES IN STREET.

Unusual Case at Richmond, Va.—Probably of Norwich, Conn.

Richmond, Va., January 18.—A well-dressed man of about fifty years old, supposedly from papers in his pocket to be Eno Whytehall, of Norwich, Connecticut, expired in front of the residence at 3317 Grove avenue today. He became ill in the street and asked aid of two negro boys, with a wagon, who took him into their vehicle and, on finding a moment later that he had died, the boys took him into the residence mentioned and then drove off hurriedly. The coroner did not believe there were any suspicious circumstances about the case, and ordered the body removed to a private morgue at 601 West Broad street. In the dead man's clothes $35 in currency and an expensive gold watch were found. His suit case, which was thrown out of the wagon by the negroes before they hurried on, is at the Second police station.

Inquiries regarding the man's identity have been telegraphed the Norwich police department.

GIBBONS MEMORIAL HALL.

Plans for New Structure at the Catholic University.

Baltimore, Jan. 18.—Definite shape has been given to plans for the building of a new structure, to be known as the Cardinal Gibbons Memorial Hall at the Catholic University, Washington, D. C., which is intended to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration to the priesthood and the co-incident 25th anniversary of the elevation to the cardinate of the Cardinal archbishop of Baltimore. These two events in the life of Cardinal Gibbons occurred on June 30th and the anniversaries indicated will be celebrated this year. Today a meeting of the clergy of the diocese was held at St. Marys' Seminary and tonight one of the laiety at the Catholic Club and at these the plans for raising the necessary money were perfected. Bishop O. B. Corrigan was made chairman of a committee of 15 to receive subscriptions to the building fund.

NEW SENATORS NAMED.

In Rhode Island and West Virginia Yesterday.

Charleston, W. Va., January 18.—Watson was nominated for the short-term senatorship tonight by the Democratic caucus. He received 40 votes.

Montgomery, Ala., January 18.—The passage of the governor's manison bill of Senator Screws, despite a spirited fight in the Senate for a retrenchment policy, and the election of John H. Bankhead as United States Senator to succeed himself, were the three features of the session of the Alabama Legislature today.

Providence, R. I., January 18.—Henry F. Lippett, of Providence, Republican, was elected today United States Senator from Rhode Island, to succeed Nelson W. Aldrich. On the joint ballot of the two branches of the Legislature his majority was five votes.

onized had Columbus never lived, but had the streams of the bginnings of American history flowed from other sources in other directions it would be futile even to make an imaginative forecast of the ffect they would have produced upon the history and development of this continent. The merciless intolerance of an eclesiastical system and the horror of its persecutions stimulated the earliest immigration, and subsequently brought about the Reformation in Saxon and Anglo-Saxon lands, and the same spirit drove to our shores the Pilgrim and the Puritan fathers; which chain of circumstances destined this country from the very beginning to be the land of the immigrant and the home for the fugitive and the persecuted.

The difference between government by Kings and Nobles and government under democracy is that the former rests upon the power to compel obedience, while the latter rests essentially upon the sacrifice by the individual for the community, based upon the ideals of the right and justice. If the Pilgrims, the Puritans, and the Huguenots brought with them, as they certainly did, the remembrance of sufferings for ideals and the spirit of sacrifice, how much longer was that remembrance, and with how much greater intensity did that spirit glow in the souls of the Jews, whose whole history is a record of martyrdom, of suffering, and of sacrifice for the ideals of civil and religious liberty, of whom it is said: "Of all the races and nations of mankind which quarter the arms of liberty on the shields of their honor, none has a better title to that decoration than the Jews."

The spirit of Judaism became the mother of spirit of Puritanism in old England, and the history of Israel and its democratic model under the Judges inspired and guided the Pilgrims and Puritans in their wandering hither and in laying the foundations of their commonwealths in New England. The piety and learning of the Jews bridged the chasm of the middle ages, and the torch they bore amidst trials and sufferings lit the pathway from the ancient to the modern world. "The historical power of the prophets of Israel," says James Darmesteter, "is exhausted neither by Judaism nor by Christianity, and they hold a reserve force for the benefit of the coming century. The twentieth century is better prepared than the nineteen preceding it to understand them." While Zionism is a child of despair in countries where the victims of oppression are still counted by millions, the Republicanism of the United States is the nearest approach to the ideals of the prophets of Israel that has ever been incorporated in the form of a State. The founders of our government converted the dreams of philosophers into a political system, a government by the people, for the people, whereunder the rights of man became the rights of men, secured and guaranteed under a written constitution. America is peculiarly a "promised land," weherin the spirit of the teachings of the ancient prophets inspired the work of the fathers of our country.

American liberty demands of no man the abandonment of his conscientious convictions; on the contrary, it had its birth not in the narrowness of uniformity, but in the breadth of diversity, which patriotism fuses together into a conscious harmony for the highest welfare of all. The Protestant, the Catholic, and the Jew, each and all need the support and the sustaining power of their religion to develop their moral natures and to keep alive the spirit of self-sacrifice which American patriotism demands of every man, whatever may be his creed or race, who is worthy to enjoy the blessings of American citizenship. I do not wish to be misunderstood as claiming any special merit for the Jews as American citizens which is not equally possessed by the Americans of other creeds. They have the good as well as the bad among them, the noble and the ignoble, the worthy and the unworthy. They have the qualities as well as the defects of their fellow-citizens. In the word, they are not any less patriotic Americans because they are Jews, nor any less loyal Jews because they are primarily patriotic Americans.

HYDE'S STATEMENT FALSE.

Says Chief Counsel of the Legislative Graft Committee.

New York, Jan. 18.—M. Lynn Bruce, chief counsel for the Legislative Graft Committee says that Chamberlain Hyde begs the question when he says, as he did in his letter of last night to Mayor Gaynor, that he was assured he would not be subpoenaed as a witness before the committee.

"I never told Mr. Hyde or any other persons, either in public or private, that Mr. Hyde was not to be a witness before the committee," said Mr. Bruce today. "I made the public statement more than once that Mr. Hyde would be a witness before the committee adjourned. These statements were made by me before Mr. Hyde went out of town.

"He was not subpoenaed for the reason that he held a high office, was a lawyer and knew we meant to call him as a witness. We quite naturally supposed he would be at his office or in communication with it, so we could call him at any time. We had no idea he was going away on an extended vacation."

STRIKE TIES UP RAILROAD.

Traffic Suspended on Thousand Miles of Main Line.

Mexico City, Jan. 18.—Traffic was suspended today on one thousand miles of the main line and branches of the Southern Pacific Railway in Mexico as a result of the strike of American and native enginemen which began last night according to telegrams received here by the government railroad inspector from General Manager R. H. Ingram, of Guayamas.

Railroad officials stated that it was impossible to grant the demands that had been made for increases in wages.

AGREE ON TARIFF REVISION.

Senator Bailey and Champ Clark—Statement Issued.

Wasnington, January 18.—Senator Bailey, of Texas, in a statement issued tonight declared that his differences with Representative Champ Clark relating to tariff revision concerned procedure only and that he would not let procedure interfere with progress.

The statement was issued following interpretations of the results of speeches at the Baltimore Democratic Conference Tuesday.

"It is impossib lefor me to understand how any man who knows anything about the tariff question could imagine that there is any radical difference between Mr. Clark and myself," said Senator Bailey. "Ie favors amending the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill by schedules, while I believe in replacing it from preamble to conclusion.

"But wuether it is better to revise the tariff in my way or in the way which Mr. Clark proposes, the difference between us is plainly and only as the method of procedure, and I hardly suppose that any man with sense enough to secure an election to the House or to the Senate would contemplate for a moment engaging in a serious controversy with his Democratic brothers over such a question.

"While I am tenacious—some people think unreasonably so—in contending for what I consider a principle, I would not divide my party for a moment over a simple question of procedure, and if the Democrats of the House in which all tariff legislation must originate, determine upon the plan of revising it, schedule by schedule, I shall certainly interpose no objection which could possibly interfere with the great work which we must do."

PUZZLING IN TENNESSEE.

Question of Senatorial Succession As Much in the Air as Ever.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 18—The question of the Senatorial succession is as much in the air tonight as ever. Neither Benton McMillan nor B. A. Enloe appear able to command enough votes to win. The decision rests solely with the three Republican insurgents—Senators Houk and Davis and Representative Brown, who voted for James A. Fowler, assistant United States Attorney General on both ballots today. If these three refuse to vote for Enloe he cannot win. If two resist the advances of the McMillan leaders, McMillan cannot win. So far as can be learned tonight neither shows any sign of changing to either McMillan or Enloe. The chances are no one will be elected tomorrow. General Luke E. Wright is here but has not defiend his position.

HANDICAP AT PINEHURST.

Trap Shooting Event—Geo. Lyon Makes Good Score.

Pinehurst, N. C., January 18.—The fourth annual midwinter handicap trap shooting tournament began here tdoay with a 200-target race of 10 twenty-target sweepstakes, in which C. G. Westcott, of Leesburg, Fla., led with a score of 184. W. F. Clark, of Boston, was second, with 181, and Dr. D. L. Culver, of Jersey City, the title-holder, tied, with W. D. Hines, of Portland, Maine, at 168.

John M. Taylor, of Atlanta, Ga., led the professionals with 188; H. S. Welles, of New York, second, with 180, and Lester S. German, of Aberdeen, Md., tied with George L. Lyon, of Durham, N. C., at 177. A bad cross-wind made the average low.
